A screenshot of the TMS web application interface. The page title is "My Signatures". On the left, there is a navigation menu with options: Dashboard, My Menu (selected), My Interests, My Signature, Student Courses, and Projects. The main content area shows a "Select Signature" section with a "Choose File" button and a "No file chosen" message. Below this, there are instructions: "Follow the following instructions" followed by a list: "Select PHD image of Signatures, with transparent or white background only", "Signatures should be over real signatures, so that will be used everywhere they need in the program", and "When you press 'save signature', a window for password prompt, write your login password here". To the right of the instructions is a large rectangular area containing a handwritten signature in black ink on a white background. At the bottom of the page, there is a small copyright notice: "© Copyright NUST-LMS. All Rights Reserved. Designed by NUST LMS Development Team." and a vertical stack of social media icons on the far right.
